About the Author

Bob Livingston has spent over 40 years on Bay Street, on both the sell-side and buy-side. In the last 15 years he has made numerous presentations on wealth management and has spoken at several conferences on the part philanthropy can play in managing your wealth. In addition to Bob's financial management experience, he has become very interested in personal development. He has made numerous presentations to high school and university students, stressing the importance of wealth management and personal development.

Bob has written numerous essays on family issues, personal development, philanthropy, and wealth management. Two common themes in his essays are the importance of developing financial responsibility in your life as well as increasing personal involvement in your community. These goals can be realized by learning the basics of wealth management and making personal development an integral part of your operating DNA. Bob uses numerous family anecdotes to illustrate his personal journey in pursuit of these two goals.

When asked why he has such a passion for personal development, Bob's answer is simple: "It is my way of giving back to the community, it expands my comfort zone, and most importantly, I am having fun doing it." Bob has come to realize one of his true passions in life is helping others achieve their dreams.

Bob has developed a website, dreamscostnothing.com, where you can access his reflections on family issues, personal development, philanthropy, and wealth management. There is also resource material available regarding specific topics like organizing your financial documents and starting a personal development library.

Bob suggests that you never forget: "Dreams cost nothing. Implementation gets expensive."
